President's Message

Greetings fellow homebrewers!

It's hard to believe that July is upon us but here we are. Summer means it's festival season and a great time to sit outside with a great beer in wonderful weather. As I write this, I've just returned from the Grand Opening at the new Ballast Point Long Beach location where I enjoyed a couple of beers and lunch while overlooking Alamito's Bay. In a single word the place is AWESOME, huge location with multiple bars, tons of seating, and both an upper and lower patio area.

I also spent Saturday the 25th with a lot of fellow club members at the Beer Camp Across America Beer Festival at the Queen Mary. How could you go wrong with 153 breweries pouring unlimited amounts of tasters outside, near the water. Among my personal highlights were two incredible sours from The Rare Barrel and the terrific Bonker's IPA from Highland Park Brewing. I also had the chance to meet and get a photo taken with Ken Grossman, founder and owner of Sierra Nevada Brewing and the Godfather of craftbrew, a real geekout moment for me.

Thanks and Happy Brewing!

Ray

LBHB Advent Calendar Project

By Jon Silvertooth

Hi fellow LBHB'ers. We have another exciting project coming up for the holiday season. We're putting together an advent calendar, but not a crappy milk chocolate calendar. Instead, this calendar will be filled with 24 days of awesome Homebrew.

If you want to sign up to participate in this project, you can read the details and sign up at this URL:
<https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1KLWARytlvilsqfXd2I14nRI1z-uHxJZxpUagbZxzsik/viewform?pli=1>

The sign-ups will be limited to the first 24 brewers, so if this is something you are interested in, please sign up now before all the slots are taken up!
